Re: Invoice from Atchley & Associates, LLP

The Corporations received statement from Atchley & Associates, LLP via interoffice mail in late December for $1,384. The statement indicated the original invoice was 90 days overdue; however, the Corporations had never received the original invoice. We reached out to Atchley & Associates for a copy of the original invoice (which is included in the backup for your review) and to ensure they would send invoices and statements directly to the Corporations for prompt payment going forward. Please note, we confirmed that there are no penalties or late fees related to this invoice, which is 20% of the total fees for the Corporations' outside audits in 2012. The remaining 80% has already been paid. We have reviewed the contract with Atchley & Associates, LLP, and represent that the payment is allowed in the contract.

We recommend approval of the invoice/statement, and have included a breakdown of the $1,384 fee across the Corporations since each Corporation will write an individual check to Atchley & Associates.
