The Planning and Budget Office has set aside $286,000 in the Fiscal Year 2014 Preliminary Budget for the proposed increases. With the exception of the District Judges, County Court-at-Law Judges, the Probate Judge and the District Attorney, elected officials in Travis County will receive a 3% salary increase in Fiscal Year 2014. This is consistent with efforts underway to also fund a 3% increase in pay for the County's classified workforce in the Preliminary Budget. The last pay increase that applied to all classified employees became effective in October 2010.

The District Judges, County Court-at-Law Judges and Probate Judge salaries are increasing in compliance with state law and the District Attorney has requested no increase to her County salary for Fiscal Year 2014.

6. In addition to County Salary, Government Code § 25.023 says the Commissioners Court must pay the Probate Judge $1,026.86 as a "benefit replacement pay" supplement because he has continuously served as a Probate Judge since August 31, 1995 and $4,340.00 as judicial longevity because he has been an active Probate Judge in Travis County for at least 16 years. Since January 1, 2006, the Probate Judge has been elected and serving as the Presiding Judge of the Statutory Probate Judges of Texas. For the additional duties as Presiding Judge, he has received $33,000 each year ($2,750 per month).
