The Travis County Democratic Party and the Travis County Republican Party, respectively, will perform the following duties, responsibilities, and functions:

1. Each Party will be responsible for the official canvass of its primary election.
2. Each Party will prepare for its run-off primary election, if such election is held, to enable or to assist the County Clerk in the conduct of her duties, responsibilities, and functions as set forth in this Memorandum of Understanding, Texas Election Code

Chapter 173 and section 172.126, all other applicable provisions in the Election Code, and all applicable rules promulgated by the Texas Secretary of State's Office regarding the conduct of the March 4, 2014 Joint Primary Election and/or the conduct of the May 27, 2014 Joint Primary Runoff Election, if held.

3. Each Party will be responsible for the payment of all election costs and expenses for the conduct of the March 4, 2014 Joint Primary Election and will reimburse the County Clerk for such expenses; provided, however, the Parties will not be responsible for expenses incurred in connection with the conduct of early voting in the Joint Primary Election other than expenses relating to the printing of early voting ballots and the costs of the early voting ballot board as authorized by Texas Election Code section 173.003 Texas Administrative Code Title 1, section 81.132. Costs incurred by each Party for the conduct of the March 4, 2014 Joint Primary Election include the costs of early voting ballots, the costs of the early voting ballot board payable from each Party's primary fund, and each Party's share of the costs of conducting the March 4, 2014 Joint Primary Election on election day, election night and after the election. The Parties will share such costs on a 50/50 basis. However, the Parties will not be responsible for the costs of training election workers, or of providing materials published by the Texas Secretary of State's Office. The regular salaries of personnel regularly employed by the County may not be paid from or reimbursed to the County from the primary fund. However, such personnel will be paid from the primary fund for contractual duties performed outside normal business hours. Salaries paid to temporary election workers will be paid from the primary fund. The County Clerk may not be compensated for the performance of duties or services that she is required by statute to perform.
4. Each Party will handle all aspects of its precinct convention process and will cover all costs incurred in connection with its precinct convention.
5. Each Party will be responsible for performing the duties, responsibilities, and functions as specified in Texas Election Code chapter 173 and section 172.126, all other applicable provisions of the Texas Election Code, and all applicable rules promulgated by the Texas Secretary of State's Office regarding the conduct of the March 4, 2014 Joint Primary Election and the May 27, 2014 Joint Primary Runoff Election, if held.

D. Payment of Election Expenses.

1. The Parties will pay the County Clerk for actual expenses and charges incurred in the conduct of the March 4, 2014 Joint Primary Election as set forth in the itemized bill, which will be submitted to the Parties by the Travis County Clerk.
2. The County Clerk will provide the Parties documentation of the actual expenses and charges incurred in the conduct of the March 4, 2014 Joint Primary Election.

3. Each Party will pay the County Clerk its share of the actual expenses and charges incurred in the conduct of the May 27, 2014 Joint Primary Runoff Election, if held for that Party, as set forth in the itemized bill submitted by the County Clerk for the conduct of such election. If a Party does not hold a primary runoff election, that Party will not be expected to pay expenses incurred in the conduct of a primary runoff election. The County Clerk will provide the Parties documentation of the actual expenses and charges incurred in the conduct of the Joint Primary Runoff Election.
4. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of the bill submitted by the County Clerk for the conduct of the March 4, 2014 Joint Primary Runoff Election, each Party will pay the County Clerk in one lump sum the total amount the Party owes the County Clerk, as specified in the bill submitted by the County Clerk, for the conduct of the Joint Primary Runoff Election; provided, however, a Party is not expected to pay for the conduct of a Joint Primary Runoff Election if such election does not involve that Party.
5. The Joint Primary Election and any Joint Primary Runoff Election will be subject to the financing provisions of Texas Election Code Chapter 173 and section 31.100 to the extent such provisions are not in conflict with the election code's Chapter 173 or applicable rules promulgated by the Texas Secretary of State's Office regarding the financing and payment for Joint Primary Elections.
6. If either Party fails to pay its share of the actual expenses and charges incurred in the conduct of the March 4, 2014 Joint Primary Election or for the May 27, 2014 Joint Primary Runoff Election, if held, as set forth in the bill(s) submitted by the County Clerk for the Joint Primary Election, or for the Joint Primary Runoff Election, if held, such failure will constitute a breach of this Agreement; and, in the event of such breach, the County and/or the County Clerk will be entitled to pursue any and all rights and remedies allowed under federal or Texas law (statutory law, case law, rules, or regulations).
7. The County Clerk is hereby authorized on behalf of both Parties to contract with third persons to obtain election services and supplies needed for the County Clerk to perform her duties, responsibilities, and functions in a Joint Primary Election and in a Joint Primary Runoff Election, if held. The County Clerk is the agent of both Parties only for purposes of contracting with third persons for election services and supplies and the resulting expenses incurred in connection therewith, such as third party claims, where such election services and supplies are needed for the County Clerk to perform her duties, responsibilities, and functions in the conduct of the Joint Primary Election and the Joint Primary Runoff Election, if held. Each Party will be responsible for paying that Party's share of all third party claims for election services and supplies obtained for the conduct of the Joint Primary Election and the Joint Primary Runoff Election, if held, regardless of whether the election services and supplies in question are obtained directly from a third person by the County Clerk or directly from a third person by a representative of the Party. Because the Parties are responsible for paying all such third party claims, Travis County and the Travis County Clerk will not be responsible for the payment of such claims and will not be liable for the payment of such claims.

8. Once the Election Officer submits to each Party Chair the Report of Estimated Expenses, which accompanies the attached Contract, each Party will be responsible for submitting to the Texas Secretary of State all expense reports required by the Secretary of State, in accordance with applicable statutory law and rules promulgated by the Secretary of State's Office.
9. The Parties will be responsible for filing with the Texas Secretary of State's Office all of their statements, forms, and documents necessary to obtain reimbursement from the Secretary of State's Office for the Joint Primary Election and the Joint Primary Runoff Election, if held.
10. Payment to the County Clerk for conduct of the Joint Primary Election, and for conduct of the Joint Primary Runoff Election, if held, will be made by certified check to the County Clerk at the following address: The Honorable Dana DeBeauvoir, Travis County Clerk, Travis County Clerk's Office, 5501 Airport Boulevard, Austin, Texas 78751. Payment may be hand-delivered or sent by registered or certified mail in accordance with the notice provisions of this Agreement.

E. Non-Liability.

1. The performance by the County of any duties, responsibilities, functions, or obligations undertaken by the County, by and through any County officers, (elected or appointed), including but not limited to the County Clerk, or any County departments, agents, employees, invitees, or licensees in the conduct of the March 4, 2014 Joint Primary Election or in the conduct of the May 27, 2014 Joint Primary Runoff Election, if held, is expressly conditioned upon the performance by the Parties and their respective officers, agents, employees, invitees, or licensees of the duties, responsibilities, functions, and obligations undertaken by the Parties under the attached Election Services Contract, this Memorandum of Understanding, Texas Election Code chapter 173 and section 172.126, any other applicable provisions of the Election Code, or any applicable rules promulgated by the Texas Secretary of State's Office.

Party's duties, responsibilities, functions, or obligations pursuant to the attached Election Services Contract, this Memorandum of Understanding, Texas Election Code Chapter 173 or sections 172.126 and 31.100, any other applicable provisions in the Texas Election Code, or any applicable rules promulgated by the Texas Secretary of State's Office.
