RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, service, dedication and leadership should always be recognized, and

WHEREAS, Lloyd Alfred Evans has devoted the past fifteen years and six months in service to the citizens of Travis County through his performance as Facilities Project Manager and then as Building Maintenance and Operations Director for the Facilities Management Department, and

WHEREAS, he has provided leadership, management and technical expertise for long-term and day-to-day maintenance and operation of Travis County facilities, and

WHEREAS, he has demonstrated his commitment to service, dedication to his profession and courage of leadership through his willingness to assume these responsibilities, and

WHEREAS, his efforts have resulted in significant improvements, repairs and sustainability to a number of important County facilities. Through his professionalism, and that of his staff, the County has been able to maintain services through effective response to emergency situations, recovery and mitigation of unforeseen capital losses and reliable day-to-day operation of the facilities.

WHEREAS, no matter the circumstance, Lloyd always is able to maintain that infectious smile and laughter. His outgoing personality, calm demeanor and positive outlook on life filters down to everyone with whom he comes into contact, and

WHEREAS, through these personality traits, along with kindness and understanding, he leads by example and the experience gained through a 26-year career as an officer in the United States Army, and

WHEREAS, Lloyd has decided to retire from Travis County service,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Travis County Commissioners Court of the State of Texas gratefully recognizes the contributions of Lloyd Alfred Evans to the citizens, officials and employees of Travis County and wishes him success as he embarks on this next phase of his life.

SIGNED AND ENTERED THIS 16th DAY OF December, 2014.
